SPACE SHUTTLE EXTERNAL TANK is lowered between twin solid rocket boosters shortly before it is attached to them at Kennedy Space Center, Florida. This milestone in preparing the Shuttle for its maiden voyage next spring was accomplished Nov. 4. The 154-foot long, 28-foot diameter external tank is one of four major Shuttle elements, including the orbiter and the twin solid rockets. Assembly of the first Space Shuttle vehicle will be completed in late November when the orbiter Columbia will be connected to the external tank. The assembled Shuttle, on its mobile launch platform, will then be rolled to launch pad 39A shortly after Christmas. An extensive series of pad tests, including a 20-second firing of the orbiter's main engines, is scheduled prior to the March launch. DuPont sues in tax case

The Du Pont Company filed two suits in Harrison County Friday against the Board of Aldermen of Pass Christian, according to Gordon B. Howell, plant manager of the company's facility on the Bay of St. Louis.

One suit protests the denial of a partial tax exemption the board previously had agreed in writing to grant, Howell said.

The other suit protests the 1980 tax assessment made against the company's DeLisle plant and contends the assessment is inequitable.

The suit follows actions by the Pass Christian Board of Aldermen Oct. 18 in which Du Pont's application for a one-third exemption on ad valorem taxes was rejected and the assessment for its titanium dioxide plant was set at approximately $87 million without comment or justification.

"The DeLisle plant intends to pay a fair and reasonable share of school taxes here," said Howell. "We only seek treatment of our assessment in a manner consistent with the law and equal with treatment of others in Pass Christian and Harrison County."

"Du Pont's major objection is the Board's rejection of the one-third exemption. The exemption was stipulated in a written agreement approved by the Board of Aldermen in December 1978. Du Pont filed formal application for the agreed exemption on Sept. 2."

"We support a good public school system in this community and we expect our school district taxes to be an important part of our support," said Howell.

"The fact is that the Board of Aldermen denied a partial exemption, which it earlier had agreed in writing to grant."

Howell said the company estimates its share of taxes to support Pass Christian schools, even with the exemption, would be about $500,000 based on an equalized assessment.

"This unequalized assessment and the failure of the Board to keep the agreement makes these suits necessary," said Howell.

The lawsuits filed Friday have no bearing on the Harrison County tax assessment or upon Du Pont's request for an exemption with respect to county taxes.

The Harrison County assessment of Du Pont's plant and all other county assessments, are currently under review by the Mississippi Tax Commission.

Waveland Players to close current production today

The Waveland Players are presenting their last performance of "Of Thee I Sing" at 3 p.m. today at the Waveland Civic Center on Coleman Avenue.

Tickets are $3 per person and are available at the door.

"Of Thee I Sing" is a musical-comedy in which the audience is invited to participate, likely to be great fun for the cast as well as the customers.

"Of Thee I Sing" is directed by Ollie McKen and Ted Stechman, produced by Janet Alme, accompanied on the piano by Jean Keen, and choreographed by Piccola Dietrich.

Brent Macey joins Echo news staff

Brent Macey, 25-year-old photo-journalist and native of Concord, N.H., has joined The Sea Coast Echo staff as a reporter and photographer.

Macey, a recent graduate of the University of New Hampshire in Durham where he took a degree in journalism, has been a resident of New Orleans, La. until moving to Bay St. Louis this week.

He is a resident of the 200 block of Union Street.

A member of the Memorial Union Scholastic Organization at UNH, he was also a member of the Portland Photography Club in Portland, Maine.

Macey lists his hobbies as swimming, tennis, fishing and photography.

"We are happy to welcome Brent to our staff at the Echo, and we feel he will make a significant contribution to the quality of the newspaper's editorial content," said Ellis Cuevas, Echo editor and publisher.

Hawks seek Florida games

School officials bares boycott of HNC cagers

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

The Hancock County School Board approved a Florida trip for the Hancock North Central High School boys basketball team despite objections by Board President Woodrow Ladner.

The board also approved trips by the HNC girl and boy varsity teams to Pearl River, La.

The board president stated at a meeting Saturday morning, "I'm not going to vote for out-of-state trips when we have local teams that won't play us."

However, boy's basketball Head Coach Roland Ladner reported Saturday, "If the board would have called me and HNC Principal and Athletic Director Donald Hillman to attend the board meeting, we could have solved the problem for them."

"We're not known here in Mississippi as a basketball 'hot bed.' They're not as many basketball scouts that come to this area," he said.

Roland Ladner explained his team participated in a Fort Walton Beach, Fla. tournament last year and was invited back this season.

"We had a special invitation to play again this year, but since we were put on probation we can't play in the tournament," the coach cited.

All HNC team sports were placed on probation for one year after a Hancock baseball player struck a game referee last spring.

Roland Ladner explained, "But when we went to Florida last year there were several other colleges. The kids got exposure they would not have gotten in Mississippi."

"Everybody does something special for their team each year and this is what we chose to do," he added.

The coach said his team was offered $250 for each game in the Fort Walton tournament compared to $100 normally offered in north Mississippi contests.

"The school board sent 11 cheerleaders, two sponsors, an advisor and athletic director with us to Fort Walton last year. If they had just sent the boys and me, we could have paid for the trip," he explained.

Woodrow Ladner told school board members St. Stanislaus, Stone, Pass Christian, Picayune and Polarville

High School basketball teams have refused to play HNC.

"We've got all these local teams and I want to know the reason why they won't play us. Their reasons have to be brought out," the board president stated.

Roland Ladner said, "Picayune won't play us because we can't participate in their tournament."

"We've been going for years to the Bay High, Gulfport, and Harrison Central tournaments," Roland Ladner explained.

The coach said Stone will not play HNC because of a hotly contested scoring decision at a state tournament in Jackson two years ago.

"We will play the Pass, but only one game," he added.

"The St. Stanislaus situation, I don't know about it," Roland Ladner reported.

The HNC coach said last spring, when basketball schedules are formulated, the SSC head basketball coach said the Rock-A-Chaw "schedule was full."

"I know the reason why every school won't play us except SSC," he added.

Roland Ladner said Hillman and Superintendent of Education Billy D. Sills are attempting to improve relations with area schools.

"There was nothing we could do this year because the scheduled was set in the spring," he cited.

"I feel any problems will be solved this spring," Roland Ladner added.

Sills told the board, "I think the relationships with these schools will improve."

Roland Ladner stated, "We were promised administrative and athletic director help two years ago."

"I have not refused to play any team regardless of the incident," he said.

The HNC coach said other school coaches may have not placed his team on their schedules "when they're trying to build a program."

"I can't blame them," he added.

END OF THE LINE—Volunteers searched ponds and woods seeking Herbert R. Wright, missing since about noon Thursday from the residence of Mrs. Barlett on Bayou La Croix Road where he lived. Jimmy Varrell, Bill Field, Ed Friloux, Louis Prendergast and Wright neighbor carry stretcher as another neighbor and Hancock Coroner Carl Banderet are in background. Hancock Sheriff Ronald (Ronnie) Peterson reports that Wright was a veteran and was dying with Mrs. Barlett and under a doctor's care. She reported him missing Thursday night. A thorough search of ponds and woods in the area was made on foot and from horseback by law enforcement agency personnel, firemen's association members and volunteers. (Staff photo-Ellis Cuevas).

Lee recalls days neighbor was two miles away

Zack Lee, born in 1886, and who lived all his life in what is now central Pearl River County, told me of a visit to his home in 1945 when he was 79 years old and of walking seven miles to church to attend the once a month services.

He went to the old church at Caesar because that was at that time the nearest church to his home.

Another reason for attending the Caesar church was that a young lady he was very much interested in belonged to and attended that church.

The young lady lived on his way to the Caesar church. Mr. Lee would walk to her home and then walk with her on to the church.

They both went barefoot until they came in sight of the church.

He carried his shoes in one hand and the young lady's shoes in the other hand.

At a little branch a few hundred feet from the church they would stop, wash their feet, and put on their stockings and shoes.

After the church service they would go back to her home for dinner.

The only way of travel in Mr. Lee's younger days was either walking or on horse back.

Mr. Lee lived all his life on the place at which I visited him. He remembered well the days before the railway was built. Their nearest neighbor to the south was 11 miles away, to the east, 2 miles, to the west, 2 miles and to the north, 4 miles.

The whole area was covered with one of the finest pine forests ever to be grown on the face of this earth.

Also there was fine hardwood timber on the low lands. Based on the present price of stumpage, timber like this would be worth more than $2,000 per acre today.

In the area where he lived a few miles east of McNeill, there was, as was found in most areas of the country, unlimited wild game.

He told of how he could go out anytime and kill a wild turkey or a deer or other game.

He liked to tell of how he killed at one time with one shot 3 wild turkeys. He caught them lined up one behind the other while he stood slightly to one side.

He said that at another time he killed 2 turkeys with one shot from his rifle.

Mr. Lee was 18 years old when the first trains ran on the new railroad in 1884. He remembered that the survey crews along about 1882 worked for sometime locating the new railroad.

One survey crossed Honey Island by way of Gainesville out to Caesar and thence on the old Boule road which was built by the French from Bay St. Louis to what is now Hattiesburg.

The old Boule road was built on the divide between Wolf River and Pearl River.

Old timers did not like to travel this old road because no streams were crossed and they had trouble watering their horses.

It was probably for this same reason, scarcity of water, that this survey was not approved for the new railroad.

It is interesting to note here that this railroad survey followed the old telegraph lines from New Orleans by way of Gainesville on to the old Boule road.

Mr. Lee remembered well when the wires ran from south to north just east of his old home. This road when I came here in 1912 was still called the old wire road.

Another survey for the new railroad crossed Pearl River into Mississippi a few miles west of Picaune to follow generally the old Gainesville-Columbia road.

I have an old map printed in 1856 on which the only road in what is now Pearl River and Hancock Counties extended from Shieldsboro - the former name for Bay St. Louis - to Gainesville on through what is now Picaune and on to Columbia.

The last survey for the new railroad and the one on which the railroad was built was selected as the location of the new railway.

Legend has it that a woman who grew up on the banks of the Hobolochitto River in what is now Picaune and who had become the sole owner of the great New Orleans Newspaper - the Daily Picaune - was instrumental in this location being chosen, as she had strongly promoted the financing and building of the railway through the columns of her daily paper.

Mr. Zack Lee while from 16 to 19 years old worked with the surveying crews and with the construction crews on the new railway.

Before the railway came through, people living in the area where Mr. Lee lived rarely went anywhere.

They lived at home, were self-dependent, self-sufficient, and when they did go anywhere they went to Bay St. Louis or Gainesville.

They carried with them chickens, turkeys, charboles, hides of various kinds and other things they thought they could sell.

They brought back coffee, sugar, soda, salt the various kinds of medicine sold in stores in those days and most everyone brought back a jug of whiskey.

To go to Bay St. Louis and return would take about 4 days - now it takes less than half a day. To go to Gainesville and back took about 3 days.

On one trip one of the men lost his pants - how, no one ever knew. He took a sack and cut the bottom out of it and tied the top around his waist with a string and arrived back home that way.

Mr. Lee was particularly adept at training his dogs. As he told it, he had some most unusual dogs, one that was particularly well trained. He could show this dog a coon hide or a picture of a coon and the dog would rush off and pretty soon be heard trailing a coon.

He could show him a possum hide and he would scurry away and soon have a fat possum treed.

He told me, "You may not believe this, but I had another dog that would drive a covey of quail into a gopher hole and then put his paw over the hole and let them out one at a time so the hunter could get good shots at them."

Because there were so few sources of diversion and amusement, many old timers were great hands at telling tall tales, some of the best of them not printable.

Here is what is said to be a true story: A young lady living out in the area where Zack Lee lived went to Gainesville to spend some time with her grandparents before getting married.

While at Gainesville she got some stationery with her name printed on it. She was extremely proud of her stationery - it was a status symbol to her.

When she came back home she refused to get married and change her name until she had used up her prized stationery. You can believe this if you want to.

You can help honor veterans

We would like to urge everyone to come out for the annual Hancock County Veteran's day celebration Tuesday.

Veterans organizations, auxiliaries, Boy and Girl Scouts, marching groups, students, school bands and the public are all invited to come and express a 'thank you' to our veterans of Hancock County.

A parade will be held followed by special ceremonies on the steps of the courthouse in Bay-St. Louis.

We hope there is a big attendance for this annual event.

As you all know, this county has many veterans of WW II, Korea, Vietnam and a few very special Veterans of World War I.

The efforts of these men and women and forefathers before them enable us to enjoy the freedom we have today.

The Honorable Ruble Griffin, circuit judge, will be guest speaker. He is a resident of Bay St. Louis.

The parade will start at 10 a.m. at Bay Junior High and proceed through the streets of Bay St. Louis for the 11 a.m. ceremonies at the courthouse.

We join J.D. (Big John) Rutherford, Americanism chairman of Clermont R. Bontemps American Legion Post No. 139, and all Veterans organizations in inviting everyone to attend.

We all pay for shoplifting

The Christmas shopping season is already upon us and a problem that effects each and everyone of us is always on the increase during this time.

That problem is shoplifting, one that effects everyone and which is estimated to cost each of us more than $20 annually.

If there are five in your family, that comes to $100 a year, so you can see it is a serious problem which totals into billions of dollars lost each year nationally.

We know there are those who say it does not cost them when someone else shoplifts. The truth of the matter is we all pay a portion of those billions which are taken each year.

We know of several persons charged recently for shoplifting in our local stores, and the courts are meting out more than just a warning these days.

The police are called, and in most instances charges are filed by the store managers.

We have seen some persons in very awkward positions after being caught shoplifting. It is a traumatic experience to be carted off by police to the station with everyone watching.

If a person is convicted, it will always remain on his or her record and in the case of juveniles, the offense will remain on their records also.

An awareness campaign by the Mississippi Gulf Coast Advertising Club through a total media effort has begun along the Coast. We hope that you will read, and listen to the messages.

Christmas Day will be a sad one for those persons who must realize they have a mark on their records because they tried to shoplift a gift during the special season.

To Preserve The Memory

On Veterans Day, Tuesday, we look to the nation's most recent veterans and to a project which seeks to honor them.

Today, only five years since the last Americans left Vietnam, too few of us remember that 2.7 million of our young people served there over a 10-year span, sustaining casualties of 58,000 dead, 300,000 wounded and 75,000 disabled. Many more still carry profound psychological scars.

Last year, to honor the dedication and sacrifice of the Americans who served in Vietnam, a handful of Vietnam veterans formed the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund. The sole purpose of the fund is to establish a National Memorial in honor and recognition of the Americans who served and died. When the project is completed, the organization will go out of existence.

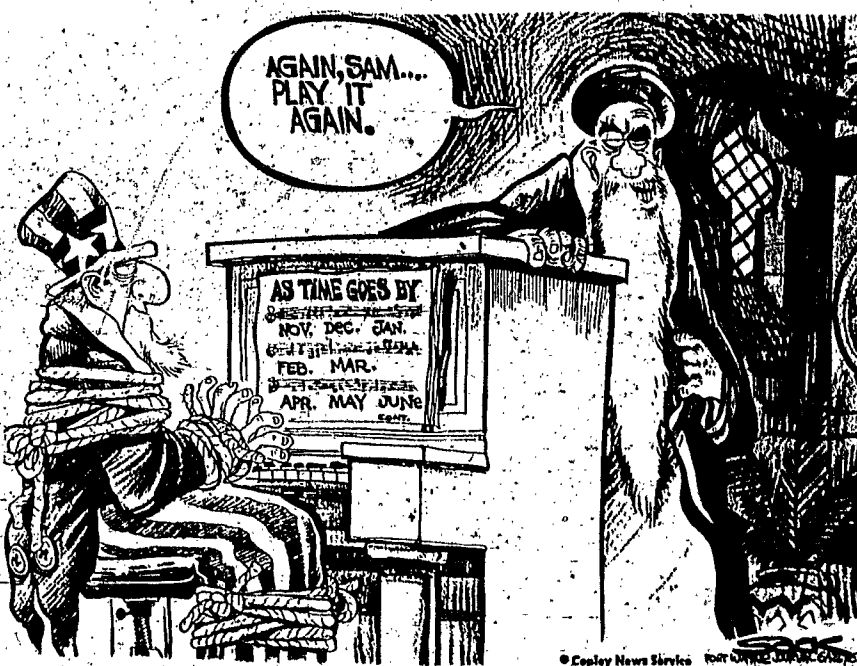

In an unbelievably short period of time the Fund has received congressional and Presidential approval of a resolution dedicating two acres of national parkland in Washington, D.C. as a site for the memorial.

But no government money will go into the design and construction of the memorial - that's the way the veterans want it. Private citizens, individual Americans, are contributing the funds.

The memorial will make no political statement about the war. Rather it is intended to be a symbol of national unity, of reconciliation. It will be located near the Lincoln Memorial, also a symbol of reconciliation after a divisive era.

So far, the Fund has raised about $500,000 of the estimated $3 million needed for the design and construction of the project. On this Veterans Day, we urge public support of this very special memorial.

Tax-deductible contributions may be sent to: The Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, Inc., P.O. Box 37240, Washington, D.C. 20013. The deposit and accounting of all gifts is conducted by an

NEWS FROM THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

Governor William Winter, speaking before the annual meeting of the Mississippi Forestry Association last week, stressed the importance of upgrading the services which the Mississippi Forestry Commission provides to the state's tree farmers.

"The forestry industry in Mississippi is a key element of our industrial development," Winter said. "It is imperative that we undertake professional management techniques to maximize the productivity of our forest acreage. This will enable us to maintain a source of raw materials that will sustain the massive industrial developments that are taking place in this state."

Winter outlined seven goals for the Forestry Commission during his remarks. Those goals are:

- (1) The addition of eight wildlife units which were eliminated last year due to lack of funding;
- (2) An increase in the prescribed burning program by adding trained personnel in several districts in the state;
- (3) A rebuilding and preventative maintenance program that will save several million dollars in state purchases of new equipment;
- (4) A training and salary administration program based on performance for setting salaries;
- (5) An increase in personnel responsible for management of the state's 400,000-plus acres of 16th section and other public lands;
- (6) New thinking for the Forestry Commission administration to stabilize the large turnover rate now occurring in the Commission; and
- (7) An increased education and information program for the public and landowners.

IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION

The Governor's Special Committee on Public School Finance and Administration last week recommended expanding the three-member ex officio State Board of Education to a twelve-member board including lay members. This is a step in the right direction for education in Mississippi.

The Mississippi Economic Council and other groups have long supported change in the board as necessary for proper administration of the state's public education system.

The state's present ex officio board consists of the secretary of state, attorney general, and state superintendent of education, who serves as chairman. Mississippi and Florida are the only states in the nation whose education programs are administered by ex officio boards.

It is questionable whether an ex officio board - composed of elected officials with other full-time responsibilities - can effectively administer a public education system which now involves more than a half million students and expenses of over $650 million.

Minutes of regular state board meetings from 1972 to 1979 indicate the board normally handles only routine, day-to-day operations with little attention given to policy making, long-range planning, or measuring of results.

Problems such as uniform financial and administrative procedures for school districts, revision of the Minimum Foundation Program for more adequate school financing, and policy direction for the state's vocational-technical training programs apparently have received little attention by the board.

MEC believes that an appointed lay state board of education would be better able to recognize problems of this nature and take appropriate action.

The Council encourages support of the principle of a lay state board of education and asks the Legislature to give careful consideration to this recommendation.

The Bottom Line

Candid Answers To Your Questions About Advertising and Business Topics.

By S. GALE DENLEY
Associate Professor of Journalism
University of Mississippi

When I joined the family firm 20 years ago, just out of college, my first job was coordinating ads for the local newspaper. I now manage the whole store, but I've held onto the ad duties. My problem is simply that the ads don't work. My department heads approve of them and say they are good, so why don't the ads produce?

Dear SWDTAP: Your store has changed; competition has changed; you have changed.

...but your ads haven't changed. They look almost like they did 20 years ago, except the reproduction is better now.

So get with it—either update your style or get some professional help. Your newspaper adperson can give you a start.

But, let's get to the real problem—you. The fact is that your department heads don't tell you a good clue. They are reluctant or afraid to tell you the truth. But this is not unusual.

In a promotion for a magazine for executives "Industry Week," an industry official was quoted as follows:

"Reality gets fuzzy at the top... the higher you rise, the more layers of subordinates to sugarcoat your facts and butter you up. Only hard-nosed fact finding can keep you from slipping into top-management delusions."

Before you get excited and jump up and down on your people, consider this. If you confront them with not being truthful about the ads they will only become more reluctant to be candid with you.

So forget that. Have someone help you with an update on the program and then ask your people for a reaction. Don't tell them where the revisions came from or who did them.

Ask them to give you their reactions, but don't give them any hints as to your feelings, either way.

Hopefully, they will react favorably to the revised ads.

If not, you may have a bigger problem than you first thought.

But as far as the ads go, you simply need to update your format and style. Stress quality and selection, rather than price alone. And then try to keep in touch with what's going on.

One of the biggest problems of rising to the top of the heap is that from way up there you sometimes don't feel the ground crumbling out from under where your feet should be.

ATTENTION: ALL MERCHANTS
Beginning October 25, the Mississippi Gulf Coast Advertising Club launched a total media campaign...press, billboards television and radio...on our anti-shoplifting project.

This campaign will focus heavily on efforts to deter offenders and would-be offenders.

It is our hope, that this effort will decrease the numbers of those who now actively engage in such activity and will discourage those who may be thinking of doing so.

We encourage you to read, listen and view this effort closely and we would appreciate your input.

Lions in need of eye donors

At the end of September, 1980 there were more blind people in Mississippi who were waiting for an eye transplant than at any time in the history of the Mississippi Lions Eye Bank.

There are 33 people who could be given the gift of sight if there were only enough donors.

It does not cost to be an Eye Donor.

There is no disfigurement of the body. Perhaps there is a family member who needs a transplant?

You or some member of your family may want to donate.

Glaucoma Often Undetected in U.S.

In the United States alone, about 800,000 cases of glaucoma are undetected.

Glaucoma, a rapidly destructive eye disease, is characterized by high pressure within the eyeball, says a booklet from the American Medical Association.

This pressure causes deterioration of the optic nerve and can lead to blindness. The latest figures show that 12 per cent of all blindness in the United States results from glaucoma. With proper medical treatment, however, visual damage can be prevented.

Common forms of glaucoma usually are found during a routine eye examination because symptoms are often not present. Blurring of vision, especially if the disease worsens and spreads, indicates that the disorder is well underway.

Glaucoma occurs most often in patients more than 40 years old and is occasionally inherited. Patients in this age group, especially those with a family history of eye disease, who suffer repeated symptoms of aching or discomfort of the eye without satisfactory relief from eyeglasses, should have a glaucoma test. The test measures pressures within the eyeball by means of a tonometer, a device that, when pressed on the anesthetized cornea, registers the pressure within the eye.

If the tonometer shows a high reading, which is an indication of glaucoma, further testing is done with a gonioscope. This device consists of a mirror or prism and contact lens and is used for viewing the angle of the eye chamber where the cornea and the iris are joined. In this way, the examiner can determine what type of glaucoma a patient has. Other vision tests also will be done.

Glaucoma can be treated by medications prescribed by a physician. Surgery is used only in a relatively few advanced cases.

Demoran faces five additional charges

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Hancock Sheriff Ronald (Ronnie) Peterson reports Kenny Demoran, 23, P.O. Box 187 Bay St. Louis, is facing charges in connection with burglaries at five residences in addition to 11 others reported earlier.

Peterson said Saturday, "Demoran was charged with 11 other burglaries last weekend and was picked up again. He was charged with three in Bay St. Louis and two more in Waveland within the past month."

"We notified all persons whose homes had been burglarized that we were going to have a lot of jewelry on display at the Harrison County's Sheriff's office Friday night," Peterson explained.

"The items were recovered from Biloxi Bay and Sell last week during an investigation," Peterson stated.

He then added, "Some of the items on display were identified by residents of three Bay St. Louis and two Waveland houses which had been burglarized in addition to those already attributed to Demoran."

Demoran's alleged accomplice

Donnie M. Stroud, who is also charged in connection with the original burglaries in Bay St. Louis, Waveland and Diamondhead, was not implicated in the five new cases, according to Peterson.

Demoran late Saturday remained in the Hancock County jail under $5,000 bond set in connection with the latest charges. He had posted bond in the earlier cases.

Peterson said Investigator Delbert Seay is in charge of the investigation with Waveland Investigators Robert (Poochy) Tartavouille and Sandra Henley assisting.

In other police activities, Peterson reports the arrest of two persons for the possible sale of controlled substances.

Edward and Lois Herring, Picayune, were arrested by Investigator Seay and Deputy Ronnie Cuevas Friday night for an alleged attempt to sell pills resembling a controlled substance in Lakeshore, Peterson said.

"A large number of pills looking like 'black mollies,' 'speckle birds,' and 'yellow jackets' were in the possession of the two. We are now awaiting a lab test from the Coast Crime Commission," Peterson reported Saturday.

The sheriff did say that there are many pills being sold along the Coast, from information he has received, that resemble controlled substances but are not.

"So called 'black mollies' which contain only caffeine equivalent to 40 cups of coffee are being sold," the sheriff warned.

Jr. Food heist suspect returned

By BRENT MACEY

David Howard Bean, 23, of Dunbar, West Virginia is being held for questioning at the Hancock County jail in connection with the Oct. 12 armed robbery of the Jr. Food Store on US 90 and Second Street in Bay St. Louis, according to Chief of Police Douglas Williams.

Bond has been set at $10,000.

Bean was extradited from the Charleston, West Virginia Police station and returned to Bay St. Louis by investigator Matt Karl and patrolman Larry Ladner. He arrived in Bay St. Louis approximately 4 a.m. Friday, Williams said.

"We are questioning other people about the case," Williams said. "Other arrests may follow." No other names were given in connection with the case.

According to Chief Williams, approximately $1,000 was taken in during the Oct. 12 robbery.

According to the cashier, the subject pulled a small caliber pistol on her and demanded the money from the cash register and the safe.

Witnesses reported that the subject fled from the store in a small blue automobile.

A description of the robber was broadcast to all law enforcement agencies. Several days after the broadcast the Bay St. Louis police department got a lead on the alleged robber which led to his arrest nine days later in West Virginia.

Waste water authority holds first meeting

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The members of the Hancock County Waste Water Commission elected officers at their first official meeting Thursday.

Waveland Mayor John Longo was elected chairman, Supervisor President A. A. (Dolph) Kellar, co-chairman; Bay Mayor Larry Bennett, treasurer; and Barbara Rappold, Waveland alderman, was selected recording secretary.

The Hancock commission was formed under provisions of a special local and private bill passed in the last session of the Legislature.

A Gulf Coast Waste Water Commission, including the counties of Hancock, Harrison and Jackson has not been accepted by either Waveland or Hancock County.

The two political groups and Bay St. Louis officials met informally to discuss the matter a week ago.

Bay St. Louis officials seem to be split on their opinions of the Gulf Coast Regional Commission. Bennett indicates he is in favor of the Hancock County Waste Water not being involved with the other two counties.

Waveland's mayor feels that, "The obligations for a tri-county waste water treatment authority are far too great for Hancock residents to participate in because costs of up to $200 million for only one percent of the return is not fair."

Kellar and Bennett express the same opinions on the issue.

Bennett said Friday, "I cannot see why the taxpayers of Bay St. Louis should have to participate in having a sewer system put in Gautier or other areas of the Coast."

"I cannot see obligating the people of this City up to a $200 million project when we can meet all of the federal requirements with a $2 million local project, which would allow us home rule, which I favor," Bennett continued.

"I have talked to some of our federal officials and they have assured me they will do everything possible to help us to receive the necessary funding for our local project," the Bay mayor added.

In a Gulf Coast Regional Waste Water Commission report of September, 1980, the estimated cost for the tri-county system is $123 million.

Waveland's waste water treatment plant which opened in 1975 occupies three acres of a 40-acre site.

Longo said, "The facility was constructed at Waveland with the intentions of it being a regional site. With only three acres in use of 37, it is more than large enough to handle all of Hancock County's waste water."

Waveland's discharge of the water after treatment is in Edward's Bayou which was originally approved by the Environmental Protection Agency, Longo said, but now has to be extended to the Jourdan River.

"All that is needed is a covered pipeline approximately one mile in length," Longo added.

Those attending the Thursday night meeting included Longo, Kellar, Bennett, Ms. Rappold, Supervisor Sam Perniciaro, Aldermen Louis Smolensky and Herman Yarborough and Waveland Attorney Lucien Gex with Walter Gex, counsel for the county.

Estimates do not include the extension of sewer collection systems in the county or extension of city systems. The waste water treatment facilities are for treatment only.

Kellar, president of the board of supervisors, at an earlier meeting stated, "I believe in home rule and we can do it (waste water treatment) cheaper than on a tri-county basis."

Longo reports, "Some figures already discussed by the regional authority run as high as $30 per month per household additional cost. I feel we can do it on a local basis in Hancock County for about an additional $5 per month."

The next meeting of the new commission will be next week, according to Longo.

CHAMBER SELECTS BAY MERCHANT—Patricia Seuzeneau, owner and operator of the Little Mushroom, receives a $50 U.S. Savings Bond at her Bay St. Louis store from Hancock County Chamber of Commerce President Wayne Ducomb Jr. Seuzeneau was recently awarded the bond after being selected Outstanding Retailer for September by the chamber's Secret Shopper. Chamber Retail Committee Chairman Pat Murphy Jr. said a local retailer is selected as Outstanding Retailer each month based on his or her friendly and helpful attitude to customers. Rocks shutout Hornets, 27-0

St. Stanislaus an easy winner over East Central

By RANDY PONDER

WADE—The excitement of homecoming did little to help the play of East Central's football team as visiting St. Stanislaus trounced the Hornets 27-0 here, Friday night.

The loss was East Central's eighth in nine games. The Rock-A-Chaws upped their mark to 7-2-1 with one game remaining.

In the Pascagoula River Conference, only Vancleave, the Rock's next opponent, has a better season record.

The Bulldogs are undefeated in nine contests.

East Central received to start the game. They ran three plays and punted.

The Rock-A-Chaws took the ball, used four plays and scored.

Three running plays moved the pigskin from midfield to the Hornet 37.

The East-Central defenders, thinking "run," were playing close to the line, leaving Marc Meyer wide open for a halfback pass from Sean Logan.

The touchdown strike covered 37 yards and with Juan Betanzos' extra point gave St. Stanislaus a quick 7-0 lead.

After an exchange of punts, the Rocks failed to capitalize on a golden scoring opportunity after Mark Lichtenstein recovered a fumble on the Hornet's five yard line.

A fumble on fourth and goal gave the ball back to East Central at the one. Even without the ball popping free, the Hornets would have taken over on downs as the play was stopped short of the goal.

This brilliant goal line stand was perhaps the highlight of the entire contest for the East Central fans.

Sean Logan accounted for the Rocks' second touchdown on a three yard run up the middle.

Logan's run capped a 20 yard drive, set back several times by penalties.

Mike Hourin set up the TD drive with a punt return to the Hornet 20. On the next play quarterback Joe Gex connected with Andrew Haas with a 20 yard scoring pass.

However, the Rock-A-Chaws were guilty of holding and the play was brought back.

Facing 3rd and 23, St. Stanislaus got a break when East Central was called for pass interference.

Logan scored several plays later. Betanzo's added the PAT building the Rock's lead to 14 points.

On their next possession, aided by three 15-yard penalties, the Hornets moved to the Rock-A-Chaw 20 before Mike Coincon killed the East Central threat with a fumble recovery.

Midway through the third quarter another fumble recovery by Mike Coincon put the Rocks in business at the Hornet 16.

Sean Logan got the points as he slipped into the endzone from the one.

Betanzos missed the conversion making the score 20-0.

The final St. Stanislaus score came at the end of the third quarter following a pass interception by Dennis Scardino.

With the football at East Central's 35, quarterback Joe Gex broke free of several would-be tacklers and scampered all the way to the Hornet 3.

Gex scored the touchdown on a one yard run, student body straight ahead.

Betanzos booted the point after touchdown, ending the scoring at 27-0.

With a 27 point lead, St. Stanislaus substituted freely in the final period.

"This was a great team effort," Rock-A-Chaw coach Barry Jones commented.

"This is the type of effort needed to win the 'big' games. The Hornets gambled on defense and we were able to take advantage. Our defense did a good job, recording their first shutout," Jones added. Next week St. Stanislaus will host the league-leading Vancleave Bulldogs. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

TOUCHDOWN RUN—Sean Logan puts the ball away, towers his head and goes for the endzone. Note the size of the hole the offensive line opened for Logan. The Rock-A-Chaws dominate the game in all areas on their way to an easy 27-0 win over the East Central Hornets. (Staff photo-Randy Ponder)

Bay High ends season with 1-9 record

Eagles soar over Tigers in Gulfport grid contest

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

The Bay Senior High School football team lost Friday night, 13-20, to St. John High School of Gulfport giving the Eagles their first consecutive winning season since 1968.

The Tigers also finished their 1980 football season in Gulfport's Milner Stadium, but with a dismal 1-9 record.

Bay High's passing quarterback Steve Seymour did not play Friday night due to a shoulder injury suffered in practice this week.

Rushing Quarterback David Palmisano was offensive field general throughout most of the game.

Last year St. John finished with a 6-4 record. This year the victory against Bay High gave the Eagles a 5-4 record, the first time the team has earned two consecutive winning seasons in 12 years.

The Tigers had the game tied up at the end of the first half, but a St. John 95-yard kickoff return for a touchdown at the beginning of the second half told the tale for the outcome of the game.

Bay High received the game's opening kickoff, but couldn't fight out of their own territory.

The Eagles got the ball on their own 22-yard line and within two plays charged to the Tiger 32 yard line.

The very next play, St. John Quarterback Marvin Koury scooted through a hole in the left side of the Bay High line to score six points—four minutes into the game.

Soccer style Eagle Field Goal Specialist Sean Peenstra upped the score to seven-zip.

But the Tigers came back with their own drive and hammered down field to St. John's eight yard line where Palmisano ran a quarterback sneak through the left side of the line with three minutes left in the first period.

Bay High Kicker Van Fayard boomed a PAT through the uprights to tie the game up.

The Tigers got a break at the end of the first quarter when quick thinking Bay High Runningback Walter Ross grabbed an Eagle fumble on St. John's 20-yard line.

But the Tigers couldn't punch through the psyched-up Eagle defense.

In a fourth and six situation on the St. John 17 yard line, Bay High attempted a fake field goal play which gave the ball back to the Eagles on their own 10-yard line.

St. John then drove to the Tiger 36 yard line, where they were stopped cold by Bay High's defense.

The Tiger offense couldn't get in gear so the Eagle offense got the ball on their own 38 yard line and worked back to the St. John 42 yard line.

But Koury threw an interception to Tiger Split End Gary Karl on the Bay High 34 yard line.

A charged-up Bay High offense began working its way toward the goal line, but time ran out for the Tigers as the first half ended.

A second half comeback by the Tigers was thwarted when Eagle Runningback Nicky Pitolo ran a 95-yard kickoff touchdown return in the opening seconds of the third quarter.

Peenstra kicked the extra point increasing St. John's lead, seven-14.

The Tiger offense again couldn't fight out of their own territory, so the Eagles regained ball possession on Bay High's 44 yard line.

Deep in Tiger territory Koury threw a short pass up the middle to St. John Tight End Tim Quigley who scampered in for another Eagle TD.

Bay High offensive squad suffered another big disappointment when the offense couldn't gain a first down in a fourth and one situation on their own 47 yard line.

But the Tiger defense held the Eagles and on a second down Bay High Wingback Stephen Hargett snagged a wild pass by Koury on St. John's 39 yard line.

The teams battled throughout most of the fourth quarter with no significant gains.

Then in the middle of the fourth quarter Bay High grabbed a Eagle fumble deep in their own territory.

In a third and eight situation on the Tiger 15 yard line, Palmisano scrambled through a big hole in the line and made a beautiful run across field to St. John's 36 yard line.

The Tigers worked their way to St. John's 20 yard line where Karl ran in for Bay High's final touchdown for the 1980 season with three minutes and 11 seconds left in the game.

Fayard's extra point attempt was blocked, setting the game score of 13-20.

Game statistics show Bay High gained 11 first downs compared to St. John's 10.

The Tigers had 240 rushing yards to the Eagle's 166.

However, the Eagles dominated the passing game with 118 yards to Bay High's 20.

Koury passed eight times, completed six and threw two interceptions.

The Tigers passed five times, completing one and threw one interception.

St. John punted once for 40 yards.

Fayard punted three times, averaging 34 yards.

Bay High fumbled three times, but recovered each fumble.

The Eagles fumbled twice and lost the ball each time.

The Tigers had three penalties costing them 35 yards.

St. John had six penalties totalling 50 yards.

FIELD GOAL ATTEMPT—Pass Christian Pirates and Long Beach Bearcats pile up at the line of scrimmage as Cat place kick specialist Mark Scalfie attempts one of two tries at a field goal in a Friday night football scrap between the two high schools. Long Beach managed two touchdowns and an extra point for a 13-0 victory. (Staff photo by Edgar Perez)

DOWN HE GOES—Hornet's quarterback Stacy Turner is all wrapped up Rock-A-Chaws. Mike Prendergast, Mark Lichtenstein, George Corcoran, Lee Klein, and Mike Coincon combine talents on these quarterback sacks. The St. Stanislaus pass rush is considered one of the best on the Coast. The Rock-A-Chaws won the football game, 27-0, ruining East Central's homecoming. (Staff photo-Randy Ponder)

Hawks spoil Hornet Homecoming

By ELLIS-CUEVAS

The Hancock North Central Hawks upset the Poplarville Hornets 21-20 before a stunned homecoming crowd at Pearl River Junior College stadium Friday.

It looked like an easy night for the Hornets to celebrate homecoming when they jumped off to a 14-0 lead with just two possessions of the ball in the first quarter.

Poplarville with a 6-2-1 record going into the game with Hancock was heavily favored as they had won the south division of the Apache Conference last week. HNC was even at 4-4.

Hawk Head Coach Irvin Favre was leaping for joy as the buzzer sounded the ending of the game and victory for this Hancock team.

Favre commented, "We came back really strong in the second half, our defense was great and we got some very good offensive blocking."

"The Hawks' three touchdowns, Keith Glass booting three extra points, a blocked Hornet extra point, defense, offensive running by backs, it was a team effort," Favre said.

When Poplarville went ahead 14-0 with 3:29 left in the first quarter, they kicked-off to the Hawks who took over on their own 29.

Quarterback Bobby Devaughn engineered a 12-play drive, which included some extra fine runs by half back Lloyd Henry and full back Glen Meranto with a key pass to Harry Henry and another to his brother Lloyd.

The first Hawk score was a three yard jaunt by Lloyd Henry with 9:18 left in the second stanza giving the Hornets a 14-7 edge.

The Hornets received the Hawks kick-off, stalled at mid-field, then turned the ball over to the Hawks on their own five yard line.

The Hawks moved to the 21 only to suffer a loss when Devaughn, back to pass, was sacked for a loss on the 13.

A ten yard punt by the Hawks was returned back to their 13, and in three plays the Hornets were on top 20-7. The PAT was blocked by Cedric Goff with help from a host of Hawks on a fast rush.

The Hawks looked like a new team in the second half with crisp offensive blocking and quick hitters by the backs. The defense shut down everything the Hornets threw at them.

As the game ended, Favre was asked what he told his players during the halftime rest and he replied, "If there was something I could tell them at the half to get them rolling, I sure would tell it to them before the game."

Favre noted however, the team came back in the second half with regular offensive patterns, but did make some defensive adjustments, especially against Hornet passing.

"One thing we did tonight, was have me shielded by a coach as I would flash offensive plays to Devaughn, that way the defense could not partially or fully pickup the next play," Favre added.

Favre felt it was very hard to name outstanding players, but had to say that Lloyd Henry was super with 188 yards and two touchdowns.

"The backs, defensive line, offensive line, defensive backs, coaches, punting and kicking were tremendous," Favre allowed.

The Hawks started rolling in the third quarter when Ernest Lee recovered a Hornet fumble on his own 46.

Devaughn handed off to Lloyd Henry who broke a few tackles and outran everyone for a 54 yard scamper with 9:12 in the third quarter still to go.

Glass' PAT was on the mark giving the Hornets 20-14 lead. The Hawks were rolling, and on the kick-off Poplarville had to turn the ball over to HNC on a punt.

The ball was on the Hawks own 35 when Lloyd Henry and Meranto started to grind it out. On the seventh play Meranto scooted in from 19 yards out with 4:59 left in the third stanza.

Glass was perfect with three for three on extra points, giving the Hawks the one point margin.

Poplarville was on the Hawk ten when they scored in the fourth stanza, but it was called back for illegal motion and a five yard penalty moved them back to the 15 with a first down.

Hancock's defense tightened and the ball was turned over by the Hornets on the 22 of the Hawks.

The Hornets got a break on a fumble recovery on the Hawks 33 but failed to capitalize.

As the buzzer sounded the Hawks were driving and on the Hornet 19.

Favre was especially pleased with the victory in view of the fact one of his regular running backs, Faron Hoda, was still sidelined with an ankle injury.

Favre said, "Hoda was still out, first string center Mike Freeman got married last week and regular end Don Morani quit a couple weeks ago to play basketball, so we were without three regulars."

"Ernest Lee did a fine job centering for punts, the first time he ever did it. Soph Bobby Beech did a fine job punting with only one exception."

"We now know we will have a winning season and it is a great feeling. We will prepare this week for Pass Christian."

Favre stated.

The Hawks edged the Hornets 263-245 in total yardage and 19-14 in first downs.

Each team fumbled once and lost them. In penalties the Hawks were 5-65 and Poplarville 7-50 yards.

Hancock will entertain the Pass Pirates next Friday at Hawk Stadium for their final encounter of the season.

CATCHES PASS—Harry Henry, No. 36, makes long gain after pass completion from Bobby Devaughn in second quarter action against Poplarville. The Hawks were down 20-7 at the half. Scoring two TD's in the third stanza, the Hawks upset a favored Poplarville Hornets at their own homecoming. (Staff photo-Ellis Cuevas).

LAST MINUTE INSTRUCTIONS—Bobby Devaughn, No. 14, receives instructions from Hawk head coach Irvin Favre as Rocky Gaudin and Joe Shaw listen in late strategy against Poplarville Friday. The Hawks were ahead by one point and Favre wanted to make every play count. (Staff photo-Ellis Cuevas).

REACHES FOR EXTRA YARDAGE—Hawk fullback Glen Meranto, No. 40, reaches for extra yardage in the third quarter of a game against the Hornets of Poplarville. Meranto scored one third quarter TD which helped the Hawks squeak by the Hornets, 21-20. (Staff photo-Ellis Cuevas).

GOOD NIGHT FOR HENRY—Lloyd Henry, No. 30, right, heads for opening made by offensive power blocking in the third quarter against Poplarville Friday. Henry rolled up 188 yards in scoring two of the Hawks touchdowns to spoil the Hornets' homecoming. Keith Glass was perfect in three PAT's to give the Hawks a 21-20 victory. Waveland Methodist setting for Asher, Hays vows

Karen Sue Hays became the bride of R. Dale Asher in a 1 p.m. double ring ceremony October 25 at Waveland United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Rose Hays of Liberty, Tex. The groom's parents are Albert A. and Clara Lee Ketchum Asher of Bay St. Louis.

Rev. Willis Britt officiated at the ceremony and Mrs. John Schneller of Lakeshore provided nuptial music.

The church's 100-year-old baskets were adorned with arrangements of white gladiolas, carnations, baby's breath and greenery. Aisle pews were marked with white ribbon bows and white carnations, baby's breath and greenery.

Arrangements of white mums, carnations and baby's breath flanked the altar and the brass 'bridal arch' was entwined with white carnation pom-poms, baby's breath, fern and white ribbon.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mark Hays, the bride wore a formal gown of silk organza fashioned with Victorian neckline enhanced with lace and long fitted sleeves trimmed in matching lace.

Her skirt extended to a chapel length illusion which fell from a crown of embroidered lace, and carried a cascade of white silk gardenias and lily-of-the-valley interspersed with lace and seed pearls.

Theresa McCullough of Bay St. Louis was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Vickie Hampton and Debbie McCullough of Bay St. Louis.

Miss Virginia Rush of Bay St. Louis was flower girl. Andrews Hays, brother of the bride, of Liberty, was ring bearer.

The bridesmaids were attired in floor length gowns of burgundy Silesta, fashioned with accordin pleated skirts and topped with matching chiffon capelets.

They wore hair ornaments of baby's breath and carried old fashioned nosegays of white silk roses and mini-carnations interspersed with looped satin ribbon and lace streamers.

Robbie Asher of Bay St.

Louis served his brother as best man.

Groomsmen were Terry Asher Jr. of Bay St. Louis, cousin of the groom and Robert Hays of Liberty, brother of the bride.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church fellowship hall.

The mother of the bride chose for the occasion a floor length gown of emerald green satinessence featuring a tucked bodice. She wore a corsage of white orchids.

The groom's mother was attired in a mocha silk blouse accented with burgundy floral print and black floor length pant skirt. A corsage of white orchids completed her ensemble.

The bride's table held a five tiered wedding cake, made by Paul Bernard of Waveland, flanked with silver candelabra and decorated with garlands of daisies, fern and white carnations. A canopy of white floor length streamers centered with a large bell covered the table.

The groom's and bridesmaids' cakes were centered on a table decorated with fern and daisies and flanked with silver candelsticks.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Helen Serio of Waveland, Miss Clara Lee Ketchum of New Orleans, Mrs. Yvonne Hasney of Waveland, Mrs. Kathleen Asher and Mrs. Curtis Asher of Bay St. Louis.

For traveling the bride chose a street length dress of peacock blue, featuring an accordin pleated skirt and topped with a white jacket. She wore a corsage of white silk tea rosebuds and seed pearls.

The couple will reside in Bay St. Louis.

Out-of-town guests included Miss Clara Lee Ketchum of New Orleans, Mrs. Dawn Bosch and daughters Robyn, Kathleen and Darlene of Slidell; Miss Ramona Handley of Liberty, Texas, Mrs. Isabell Terrell and Mr. A. T. Taylor of Pass Christian and Mrs. Robert L. Miller of Biloxi.

Houston ceremony unites White, Cowand

Miss Michele Cowand and Mr. Edward Higgins White III, were united in marriage in a recent ceremony, at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Houston, Texas.

Reverend John Fellers performed the double ring ceremony.

Miss Cowand is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cowand of Houston, Texas. Mr. White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd K. Davis of Houston, and the late Col. Edward H. White, II.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. J. A. Cowand and niece of Mrs. Helene Price of Bay St. Louis. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vinz of Gulfport.

For the candlelight ceremony, Miss Cowand chose a designer gown of Ivory organza and lace. A sheer organza capelet deeply bordered with scalloped Alencon lace fell over the shoulder to a deep point below the waist in back and covered a high-necked halter bodice of English net entirely applied with re-embroidered French Alencon lace. The doubled layered organza skirt fell from a slightly-raised waistline in front and swept into a circular chapel train bordered with matching Alencon lace. She carried a mixed bouquet of vanda orchids, azaleas, lily of the valley accented with silk brocade ribbon.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. John Pieratt of Austin, Tex., as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Baer, sister of the groom, of Dallas; Miss Mecklin Stevens of New Orleans, and Mrs. James Milloway of Mauville, Ark.

The attendants wore gowns of blossom pink qiana accented with ecru lace and carried mixed bouquets.

Mrs. Larry Coons of San Antonio and Miss Cynthia Crews of Gulfport, cousins of the bride, served as members of the house party.

Paul Brown of Malibu Beach, Calif., served as best man. Ushers were John Baer, Dallas; Louis Ducros, New Orleans; John Jaderlund, Houston; John Pieratt, Austin; and Pat O'Connell, Houston.

After the wedding, the bride's parents entertained with a reception at the Petroleum Club. A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the parents of the groom at River Oaks Country Club.

Following a wedding trip to San Francisco and Mauna Kea, Hawaii, the couple will reside in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Whites to discuss Peace Corps stint

The Friends of the Hancock County Library System, in the process of reorganizing, has invited members, former members, and other interested persons to attend the next meeting Thursday, at 7 p.m. in City-County Library, on US-90, Bay St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul White will present a program featuring a slide presentation of their experiences as Peace Corps members in Nicaragua.

White, a retired banker, and his wife, June, joined the Peace Corps in 1978.

After a three month training period in Nicaragua, they spent two years in Honduras where White served as financial advisor to a group of farm cooperatives and Mrs. White initiated and supervised a small cottage industry.

The public is also invited to attend this meeting.

N. O. RESTAURANTS

A special public television program tackles one of American cuisine's fiercest "controversies" when "Hot Stuff: The Restaurants of New Orleans" airs at 9 p.m., Monday, November 17, on the Mississippi ETV Network. The one-hour documentary dares to touch a subject gourmets love to argue about: creole cooking and New Orleans eating spots, both fancy and simple. With a hidden mike, "Hot Stuff" catches tourists reactions to the menu for breakfast at Brennan's. It claims that the recipe for Oysters Rockefeller at Antoine's is "none of your business." And it calls chef Gunter Preuss of the Versailles "the new kid on the block." The cameras also go behind the scenes at New Orleans' temples of cuisine. They show the insiders' back door to Antoine's and tell how chef Warren Le Ruth tests a recipe. The program also stops in for a jazz brunch at Commander's Palace. Since the neighborhood restaurants of New Orleans are particularly unique, "Hot Stuff" visits Casamento's where they don't even own a freezer, tastes the fried catfish at Barrow's and gets Frank Mandina's recipe for a Sazerac. Viewers get a glimpse of Texans trying to eat crawfish and cruise across Lake Pontchartrain for sunset at La Provence. And viewers are special guests for authentic Cajun cooking in a home in Lafayette. "Hot Stuff" was produced by Emmy-winner John Beyer of WYES-New Orleans. It will be rebroadcast at 10 p.m., Wednesday, November 19.

Charismatics to sponsor Renewal Day

Father George Kitchin of Our Lady of Fatima Church, Biloxi, will conduct a Day of Renewal Saturday, at Bay St. Louis Catholic Elementary School Cafeteria.

The day will begin at 9:30 a.m. and end with a 5:30 p.m. Mass at Our Lady of the Gulf Church. Coffee will be provided. The St. Augustine Prayer

Group is hosting the Day of Renewal sponsored by the Charismatic Renewal Services of Biloxi.

St. Ann's Altar Society plans Nov. 15 rummage sale

The meeting of St. Ann's Altar Society Monday night was opened with a prayer for peace and unity in the world by Father Stack.

Father Stack is happy to report St. Theresa Marie, M.S.D.T., will work in the parish four days a month, especially with the children, as Religious CCD Coordinator.

Mrs. Leonard Rupp, president, announced the monthly luncheon-social will be held Wednesday November 19 instead of the following week because of the Thanksgiving Holidays.

The ladies set December 1 as the date for the annual Christmas party to be held in the parish hall. All members are invited and are asked to call Mrs. A.M. Thomas, 467-5860, Mrs. Monroe James, 467-3236 or Mrs. Rupp, 467-7465 if they plan to attend.

Mrs. John South will be in charge of the offertory procession for the month of November.

Officers elected to serve for the year 1981 are: president, Mrs. Davis Caillier; vice-president, Mrs. Michael Schmitt; secretary, Mrs. Irene Graff; and treasurer, Mrs. Thomas.

Appointed to the telephone committee were Mrs. James Davis and Mrs. Ed Kemmure. Also appointed by the president to assist her with the Thanksgiving Project were Mrs. Lee Hote, Mrs. Graff and Mrs. Caillier.

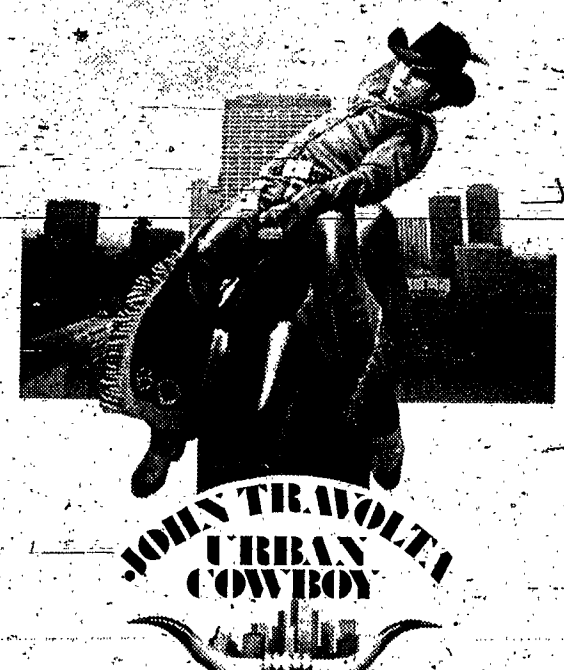

Mrs. Madonna Boos, chairman, reminded the ladies the rummage sale scheduled for Saturday November 15 in the parish hall will be open 8 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. Anyone who would like to help in any way should contact Mrs. Boos.

The meeting was closed with a prayer by Mrs. South. The next meeting December 1 will be followed by the Christmas party.

BY DR. L.S. WALKER

THE MOST THRILLING PROSPECT of our generation is the glorious return of Jesus Christ to the earth.

There is absolutely nothing more certain than His second coming and the rapture of the saints in glory. The fulfillment of prophecy makes his coming imminent.

After finishing His redemptive work on earth near two thousand years ago, He said, "I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." John 14:23.

The very fact that in these last days (of this age) do not and will not believe this, is one of the most definite evidences of His imminent return.

"Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lust, and saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep (died), all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation. For this they willingly are of." II Peter 3:1-12.

Time does not in any way alter the Word nor the promises of God. Men reveal their spiritual blindness to think so.

Today, this old world is a boiling caldron of chaos and confusion. Economically, politically, socially, and spiritually the world is drifting downward and awayward at a rapid rate of speed.

It seems rather clear, and I verily believe that world conditions are setting the stage for the soon return of Christ to the earth, and the rapture of the saints of all the ages.

This glorious event will usher in that terrible period known to Bible students as the Great Tribulation, the enthronement of the Anti-Christ (perhaps in the middle of the seven-year week) with his godless and Christless rule on earth.

This coming time of world chaos, designated by our Lord, as a time of "great tribulation," shall be brought to an abrupt end when Christ comes to the earth with "ten thousands of His saints" to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him" - Jude 14-15.

One does not have to be an alarmist nor a pessimist to make such an assessment of current world conditions. I make such an assessment because I am a realist, and because I believe Bible prophecy is being fulfilled before our very eyes today.

As sad as it is to say, the world will not get better as we near the time of His coming. "This know also, that in the last days perilous time will come, for men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof; from such turn away... But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived." II Timothy 3:1-13.

I rejoice that He is coming! Let me say to you very earnestly that apart from Jesus Christ and His redemptive work there is no hope for mankind.

There's an Answer!

How does she go on?

Q. I am driving myself crazy trying to find a direction in my life. My husband left my son and me for the widow of his best friend. He doesn't want us, but he doesn't want us to turn him away. How do I go on with my life and find something meaningful to keep me going?

A. Ease it up. Never "drive yourself crazy." That undisciplined attitude will get you exactly nowhere. If your husband left you, let him go. Build your life without him. He is no good to you if he deserted you. Get a job - get into it make new friends. Stop driving yourself crazy. Look ahead and go ahead calmly, quietly, positively. Your life is in your future and not in your past.

FILM CLASSIC

Tom Courtenay and Michael Redgrave star in "The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner" on "Film Classics" at 8 p.m., Friday, November 14, on the Mississippi ETV Network. Directed by Tony Richardson, the 1962 English film tells the story of a rebellious school boy whose need for recognition prods him into trying out for the track team.

The minister had no answer.

Q. My grandson asked his mother where God came from. His mother said, "Ask the minister." So after his instructions for confirmation in the church my grandson came running to the car and said, "The minister said he doesn't know." Could you help us out?

A. God is the first cause. Always there has to be a first, an original. As the Bible says, "In the beginning God." God did not come from anywhere. He just was, and is, the Beginning and the End. Out of Him came everything else.

Fathers have rights
Q. I suggest that you publish a correction of your response to the "Mixed-up Prisoner," the young man who is incarcerated and is the father of an illegitimate child. He had been denied visitation by the mother, and you advised him, "You probably have no legal right to visitation of the child..." Please be advised that this is not the case in Pennsylvania and other states. In recent years fathers of illegitimate children have been recognized to have substantial rights concerning their children, including visitation and custody. If the young man or other fathers reading your column follow your advice and do not attempt to see their children for a certain period of time their parental rights could be terminated forever. They should consult an attorney or local legal ser-

ULMAN AVENUE. In the 1880's sheep grazing-wool growing was a combined industry in Waveland and adjoining sections. Alfred Ulman, established Waveland's largest and most outstanding industry of that day, the Ulman Woolen Mills. Located on Nicholson Avenue, immediately west of the railroad tracks, these mills were of frame construction. Principal articles manufactured were woolen blankets and shawls.

Large black and white plaid shawls were in block pattern and very popular. Said to be "ever-lasting", Ulman's father, James A. Ulman, was Mayor of Bay St. Louis and is buried in Cedar Rest Cemetery. The Ulman's home was called, Rosedale. When the mill was dismantled and sold, a row of houses on Nicholson Avenue were constructed with the materials.

TOULME John B. Toulme, a native of France, migrated to San Domingo. Because of an insurrection he was forced to leave, so he and his slaves landed in Mobile and from there came to Bay St. Louis in the early 1800's. In Bay St. Louis he was married to Evonia Vicerie Saucier.

His capital at this time was said to have been $2,500. He bought an unfinished two room wooden structure at the corner of Union Street, weatherboarded one room and here started married life.

He became the first person to engage in mercantile business in Bay St. Louis and as years passed "he accumulated a fortune. He habitually put aside every $20 gold piece he received and on New Year's Day he divided this money among his children.

From this money one of his daughters, (the late Mrs. John A. Breth), bought a lot on Main Street. John Toulme acquired large tracts of land in New Orleans, Mobile and Bay St. Louis.

His gift to the city was the land where the Masonic Temple stands, the ground for the Court House, The Methodist Church and the Cedar Rest Cemetery.

He fathered six daughters and a son, John V. Toulme.

The son, John V., was the first man to organize a regiment of soldiers from Hancock County to enlist in the Civil War. He also served as Mayor of Bay St. Louis.

In Cedar Rest Cemetery on the old Toulme tomb is the inscription "ICI Repose, J.B. Toulme, ne a Nantes Department, de la Loire Inferieure, decede le 17 Janvier 1831 a l'age de 81 ans."

deMONTLUZIN AVE. The history of the de Montluzin family goes back to 1300 in France. It was a family of the military aristocracy, each generation contributing at least one man to the services of the King.

During the French Revolution, Louis Francois Gabriel de Montluzin as an aristocrat had to flee for his life from the guillotine and his son, Lt. Louis de Montluzin fought for many years as a cavalier in the army of Napoleon, one of the few survivors of Napoleon's disastrous campaign in Russia, he took part in the Battle of Waterloo and was personally decorated by the Emperor with the Cross of Saint Louis.

In 1824 he also received from Louis XVIII the Legion of Honor medal, and in 1827 from Charles X the second cross of Saint Louis. Louis de Montluzin's son, Ludovic Adrian, became a journalist rather than a soldier and was a friend of Victor Hugo.

In 1854 he brought his family to Louisiana and taught in a school in Convent, later establishing a school for boys in New Orleans. Ill health brought him to the health resort of Bay St. Louis.

In 1878 in Bay St. Louis he opened a small apothecary shop. His son, Rene, became known as the "oldest active pharmacist" in Mississippi when he celebrated his 93rd birthday.

His son, the late Rene, Jr., carefully preserved the proud family history and had planned a celebration in 1978 marking the Centennial of de Montluzin's Drug Store. de Montluzin Avenue is a monument to the splendid and unselfish services of this very fine family.

Rene, Sr., born in 1865 and died in 1959 gave to the City of Bay St. Louis land to be used as the first long block of de Montluzin Avenue.

JULIA STREET: Among the earliest land grants of Bay St. Louis is that of Melite la Sasser. It dates back to 1786. The late Jesse Coward purchased from la Sasser "all this tract lying on the water front known as the Coward-Field cotton plantation."

Two children of Jesse Coward, Julia and her brother Charles, were inheritors of a part of this large tract. With generosity and public spirited desire to help with the development of Bay St. Louis, they gave a strip of land starting at the Bay of St. Louis and extending to the Jourdan River for the purpose of building a street.

The name Julia was given this street in recognition of the Coward families contribution.

In 1867 Julia was married to

Dr. Stephen S. Herricks of New Orleans. The couple moved to California. Malcolm Coward, a great nephew of Julia still maintains a home on Julia Street, which has the distinction of being the only street running all the way from the Bay of St. Louis to the Jourdan River.

Early maps of Bay St. Louis (Shieldsboro) show Dunbar Avenue as Second Street.

MCDONALD LANE: W.A. McDonald, founder of the company, W.A. McDonald & Sons, moved from Holly Springs, Mississippi in the year 1904.

Together with his sons, C.C. and John, the McDonalds engaged in a variety of thriving businesses serving the coastal area.

During the sawmill days, McDonald was a "best seller," also Queensboro wagons, and a pink-ice-gingerbread known as the "stage plank."

These merchants were well known throughout the state for tobacco sales, and as late as the 1930's they ordered a two-carload lot of Octagon soap. Those were the days of the "Gold Dust Twins," a washing powder guaranteed to bleach the clothing and reddens the hands.

McDonald Lane begins with the "Old McDonald Place," 502 North Beach, and extends to Second Street.

Through the years the McDonalds have reflected "These Changing Times," becoming builders, real estate dealers, furniture suppliers, hardware merchants, etc.

The record of their business, civic, and church services to this community form an avenue far too broad for the quaint and colorful McDonald Lane.

Hancock chancery clerk to attend USM seminar

Hancock County Chancery Clerk E. Michael Nacaise will attend a Records Management Seminar at 9 a.m. Nov. 18, in the Union Building at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

The State Department of Audit and the State Tax Commission will conduct four of the seminars in November and December.

These seminars, coordinated by the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service Center for Governmental Technology, will discuss details of personnel financial and record-keeping responsibilities of chancery clerks, their office personnel and other county officials.

Other meetings are slated for Nov. 19 at Copiah-Lincoln Junior College Dec. 9 at University of Mississippi and Dec. 10 at Mississippi State University. Each seminar will begin at 8:30 a.m.

An extension service spokesman said, "A second group of seminars has been requested by the County Clerks Association. These meetings are planned for early spring 1981. Topics to be discussed include the flow and impact of county financial operations and tax sales-redemptions."

"Funds for the coordination of these programs are made available, in part, under a grant from the Office of Personnel Management under the Intergovernmental Personnel Act of 1970 through the Governor's office of Federal-State-Local Programs," the spokesman added.

CHRISTIAN HISTORY

A 13-part series exploring the 2,000-year history of Christianity premieres at 2 p.m., Sunday, November 16, on the Mississippi ETV Network. Narrated by Bamber Gascoigne, the series was filmed in 30 countries, including most of the countries of Europe, the United States, the USSR, South America and Africa. According to producer Granada Television, "The Christians" is not a religious series, but rather the story of 2,000 years of history. Film footage ranges from the annual passion play enacted since the Middle Ages in the tiny Spanish village of Verges to the island monasteries of Ethiopia; from the gilded splendors of the Russian Orthodox Church to the austere communities of the Old Order Amish in America and the evangelical missionary movement.

A slick plan for a rainy day.

Some people manage to go through life without ever having a rainy day. But most people run into a storm now and then. So it pays to plan for a storm and then hope it never happens.

The Payroll Savings Plan is one sure, safe, easy way to force yourself to start saving. And savings are a must to keep any financial plan from going on the skids.

Visiting Committee awards 'A' rating to Annunciation

A Committee of nine educators from the area and from Jackson spent two days last week visiting classes and interviewing teachers for a ten-year accreditation of Annunciation School located on the Kiln-DeLisle Highway in Kiln. The Visiting Committee included Msgr. Paul V. Canonic, superintendent of the Catholic schools of Jackson who served as committee coordinator; Dale Holloway, supervisor of elementary education, State Department of Education; Jackson; James Baldree, principal, Waveland Elementary; Brother Paul Mulligan, principal, St. Stanislaus; Ms. Jane Hanley, principal, Roseland Park Elementary; Picayune; Faye Stockbridge, St. James School, Gulfport; Ms. Helen Lee Parker, Pearl River Central Elementary; Carriere; Sr. Marie Charles Cozzi, D.C., educational associate for the Catholic Diocese of Biloxi; and Sr. Jane Walker, O.P., coordinator of religious education for the Catholic Diocese of Biloxi.

As a result of the visit, the committee recommends A accreditation for Annunciation School.

The final decision will be announced at the December meeting of the Commission of School Accreditation.

For a school to merit A accreditation it must comply with standards set by the Mississippi State Department of Education.

These standards include the principal must hold Class A administration certificate; 10 percent of the teaching staff shall hold a master's degree; there shall be a maximum enrollment of 27 students per class in grades 1, 2, 3, 4 and other grades shall not exceed 32 students per class; and students shall have access to a central library or to a room library.

Annunciation School has an enrollment of 93 students and encourages the enrollment of students of all races.

It is administered by the Religious of Jesus and Mary and the staff includes Sr.

Margaret, Theresa, R.J.M., principal; Sr. Josepha, MSBT, part-time teacher; Mrs. Doris Diamond, Grade 1 teacher; Mrs. Creola Watson, Grade 2; Mrs. Linda Sanders, Grade 3; Sr. Claire R.J.M., Grade 4; Mrs. Lynn Parkinson, Grade 5; Royce Peters, Grade 6; Mrs. Betty Gallagher, Resource Room aide; Mrs. Pat Ladner, Title I aide; Mrs. JoAnn Ladner, secretary; Mrs. Amy Pavolini, cafeteria manager; Mrs. Clara Cummins, cook; Jason Necaise, maintenance; Dewey Hoda, custodian. 1930-1980! Long Live the Berries!

Just 50 years ago, history recorded the opening of America's first supermarket in Queens, New York. 1930 also marked the birth of a company that today produces some of the most popular products sold in the nation's 30,000 supermarkets—Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc.

This nationwide cooperative, now headquartered in Plymouth, Mass., has a membership totaling 725, including the majority of America's cranberry growers in five states: Massachusetts, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Washington and Oregon. It also has a membership of more than 100 grapefruit growers in Florida's Indian River region.

But the cranberry is much older than a half century. It is one of only three fruits native to this country. The Indians, who prized cranberries as both food and medicine, first introduced them to the Pilgrims and other early settlers. Over 350 years later, that same little berry has become the basis of a thriving $250 million industry, pleasing American palates in drinks, sauces

Much of the colorful saga of those 350 years is unfolded to thousands of tourists each week at Cranberry World. Visitors to the Plymouth Center, sponsored by the Ocean Spray cooperative, the admission-free museum overlooks historic Plymouth Bay, less than one-half mile from the legendary Plymouth Rock and Mayflower II, in the very heart of "cranberry country."

Tying in with the 50th anniversary theme, one of the notable new exhibits at Cranberry World celebrates the life and times of America in the year 1930. Called "1930-Revisited," the nostalgic display includes fascinating cultural and social artifacts of the period from fashions to tableware, newspapers to movie posters.

Surrounded by three working bogs, Cranberry World offers visitors two floors of absorbing exhibits, audio-visual presentations, and three-dimensional displays, tracing the colorful saga of the red berry from pre-colonial days to the present. Period and contemporary harvesting tools, photo montages, slide and video offerings and a striking

LEGAL NOTICE

ANNOUNCEMENT OF INTENT TO PERFORM FLOOD ELEVATION STUDY

The Office of Federal Insurance & Hazard Mitigation, Federal Emergency Management Agency, announced today that under authority of the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-448), as amended, and the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-234), it will fund a detailed study of the flood hazard areas in the City of Waveland, Hancock County, Mississippi.

The study will be performed for the Federal Emergency Management Agency by Gee & Jensen Engineers-Architects-Planners, Inc., 2019 Okeechobee Boulevard, West Palm Beach, Florida 33409. The purpose of this study is to examine and evaluate the flood hazard areas in the community which are developed or which are likely to be developed and to determine flood elevations for those areas. Flood elevations will be used by the community to carry out the flood plain management objectives of the National Flood Insurance Program. They will also be used as the basis for determining the appropriate flood insurance premium rates applicable for new buildings and their contents, as well as determining the rates to be used for the second layers of insurance on existing buildings and contents.

This announcement is intended to notify all interested persons of the commencement of this study so that they may have an opportunity to bring any relevant facts and technical data concerning local flood hazards to the attention of the Federal Emergency Management Agency for consideration in the course of this study. Such information should be furnished to: The Honorable John Longo, Jr., Mayor, the Chief Executive Officer of the community, for forwarding to the Federal Emergency Management Agency.
